

We help pension professionals in the charity sector to share industry knowledge and best practice.

Update from The Pensions Regulator (TPR) on the Draft DB Funding Code of Practice.

FRIDAY 24 FEBRUARY
2.00PM - 3.30PM
ONLINE

We are delighted to welcome TPR to our February meeting,

During this session TPR will be providing an update on the Draft DB Funding Code of Practice, with a particular focus on how it affects the not-for-profit sector.

This will be an online session lasting approximately 1.5 hours and will consist of a presentation from TPR, followed by a Q&A session.

Members receive expert advice from our supporting partners:

SPEAKERS

David Walmsley
Head of Covenant and Financial Analysis, TPR

David manages the team covering DB, Master Trust, CDC and consolidation at TPR. He is a Chartered Accountant and has been at TPR for 13 years working across funding, use of powers, policy work and organisational design. For the past 15 months David has been working on the new DB Funding Code and is currently finalising the updated covenant guidance to support the Code.

Martin McNamara
Principal - Actuary, TPR

Martin is an actuary at TPR with over 20 years experience working in pensions. Martin works on individual cases and on policy matters and is part of the team developing the new DB Funding Code of Practice recently released for consultation.

HOW TO REGISTER

This event is for members of the Charities Pensions Club (CPC). Members are responsible for pensions at a not-for-profit organisation, and must be an employee, not a third party. If you are thinking of joining the CPC then you can join the first meeting FREE to see how it works, no obligation to join. Contact us today to reserve your space.

T: 07504 855972
E: chloe@charitiespensionsclub.com
W: www.charitiespensionsclub.com